Welcome

Reflections & Ruminations... by Fr. Steve Angi

Today is a special Mass which I will attend as a concelebrant with Archbishop Schnurr as he celebrates his 50th anniversary as a priest. Throughout his life, he has served in many and varied ways as a priest and bishop. He comes from a small town in Iowa named Hospers. When I attended his mother's funeral there one December, I was able to see the town in about one minute due to its small size. The day of the funeral brought a high temperature of 20 degrees below zero. After Archbishop Schnurr's ordination to the priesthood, he served as a parochial vicar at the Cathedral in Sioux City, Iowa, and was sent for canon law studies at the Catholic University of America in Washington, DC. Upon his return, he served as chancellor and financial officer in Sioux City before being called to serve at the apostolic nunciature in Washington, DC. Archbishop Schnurr was then chosen to serve as Executive Secretary for the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops. In 2001, he was appointed bishop of Duluth, Minnesota and then coadjutor bishop of the Archdiocese of Cincinnati in 2008 where in December 2009, he became Archbishop of Cincinnati after the retirement of Archbishop Pilarczyk. I have personally served under Archbishop Schnurr as Chancellor in 2011 and then Vicar General and continue to serve as Vicar General to this day.

Archbishop Schnurr exemplifies very well: "a good character ... quiet, solid, steady, careful about his duties, sincere, straightforward, in order, and pleasant. He is very much concerned about the Church and her mission. I am honored to be able to serve under such an outstanding man, priest and Archbishop. Congratulations to Archbishop Schnurr on his 50th anniversary to the priesthood and 23 years as a bishop. May God who has begun the good work in him bring it to completion!

Fr. Steve Angi

Adoration

Making prayer a priority is a goal many of us recognize but we often stall out in our efforts. In the words of one of the weekly adorers, "once you attend adoration for a few weeks, you start looking forward to the opportunity more and more. It centers your week and gives you peace." We invite you to stop on any Tuesday in the IHM Adoration chapel from 6:00am-10:00am. Consider sharing one spot with a friend. We have an immediate need at 4:00pm and 5:00 pm and a list for people willing to be subs. Any questions please contact Joy or Jeannine at adorationsggf@gmail.com.

Eagle Scout Project

Hi, my name is Jacob Gundrum and I am a scout in Troop 694. I'm raising money for my Eagle Scout Project encompassing renovating two bathrooms and the stage for the St. Gregory the Great Family of Parishes youth room at Immaculate Heart of Mary. We'll be focused on expanding the bathrooms and buying and installing new toilets, mirrors, vanities and more. This project is important to me because it updates an area that is used by many youth. With the joining of two other parishes, this room needs a refresh now more than ever. Please scan the QR code to donate. In Scouting,

The Order of Secular Franciscans (OSF)

The Catholic church has many different orders of the clergy, Jesuits, Dominicans, Franciscans and Benedictines just to mention a few. Many of these have what is known as the first order, second order and third order.

The first order consists of ordained clergy who have professed to follow a certain rule. These are Jesuit priests, Dominican priests, Franciscan priests, and Benedictine priests. The second order consists of vowed religious, brothers and sisters who have dedicated their life to the virtues of their particular order. Finally, there is the third order which consists of clergy and laity who profess to lead their lives in accordance with the charisms of their particular order. The third order includes ordained priests who are of a different order but profess to lead their lives in accordance with the Franciscan rule, for example.

On Saturday August 10th, Paul Feie will make his final profession for the Order of Secular Franciscans. This will take place at the St. Joseph Conference and Retreat Center in Tipton, Indiana during the annual Franciscan Connect Retreat being held that weekend.

Please pray for Paul and all the Secular Franciscans that they may continue to have the grace to live the life that our Seraphic Father St. Francis of Assisi so eloquently established.

If you have questions, contact Paul at 513-502-8027 or pfeie713@gmail.com

The Chosen Watch Party featuring Cabrini on July 29

The Chosen watch group wants to get back together this summer! We are presenting "Cabrini" on July 29 at 6:30pm in Heritage Hall at IHM. Doors open at 5:30pm for a Potluck dinner. "Cabrini" is the powerful true story of Mother Francesca Cabrini. As always, our viewing parties are open to all. We'd like to thank the Knights of Columbus for making "Cabrini" possible! RSVP by calling the parish office at 513-388-4466. Your RSVP is preferred, but not required.

Cabrini: From Alejandro Monteverde, award-winning director of Sound of Freedom, comes the powerful epic of Francesca Cabrini, an Italian immigrant who arrives in New York City in 1889 and is greeted by disease, crime, and impoverished children. Cabrini sets off on a daring mission to convince the hostile mayor to secure housing and healthcare for society's most vulnerable. With broken English and poor health, Cabrini uses her entrepreneurial mind to build an empire of hope unlike anything the world had ever seen.

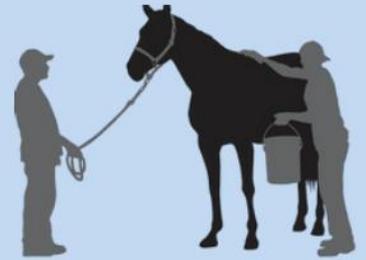

Mark your calendar! This fall we will continue watching "The Chosen" with Season 2. The opening night will be Monday, September 9. We will view all 8 episodes over 6 weeks. If you are interested in sponsoring an evening, please contact Mickey at 513-262-1725 or cmickeyr@icloud.com. If you would like to be on our email list, please contact IHM's office at 513-388-4466.

Mental Wellness
Ministry

St. Gregory the Great Mental Wellness Minute

Mental Wellness and Older Adults

According to the National Council on Aging, "Up to 25% percent of adults 65 and older are living with a mental health condition such as anxiety or depression."

Supporting older adults through mental health issues requires compassion, understanding, and community involvement. As individuals age, they may face challenges such as loneliness, grief from losing loved ones, and anxiety about health issues. These can profoundly impact their mental well-being, and it's essential to offer a listening ear, spiritual guidance, and encouragement.

Faith communities can play a crucial role by fostering a sense of belonging and purpose. Regular visits, prayer groups, and social activities can alleviate feelings of isolation. Encouraging older adults to participate in community service can also provide them with a renewed sense of purpose. Take a moment to check in with an older family member or neighbor and let them know that you care about them. Together, we can create a supportive environment that nurtures both the spiritual and mental health of our aging members.

Keep in Mind

Once one comes to know the basic principles of mathematics, they will never be able to truly believe that 2 + 2 does not equal 4. Regardless of intent or desire, it remains impossible after that revealed knowledge is theirs.

Likewise, once one comes to the certitude of the revealed knowledge of God, one can never "unknow" God. One can walk away from God for any reason, but the Truth remains with us. So we continue to pray vigorously for all who struggle. And we trust God to do the things that only He can do in the human heart.

St. Gregory the Great Family of Parishes Prayer

St. Gregory the Great, patron saint of teachers, present our prayer of gratitude to our Heavenly Father. Share our prayer of wisdom and guidance as we continue on the path to unify our family of parishes. Just as you led the faithful knowing "the proof of love is in the works", open our hearts to be dedicated disciples of Jesus through prayer, teaching, sacraments and service. May our works, inspired by Jesus, guide us to unity within our family and love within our community. Teach us humility and compassion, the cornerstones of generosity, and the unwavering faith you demonstrated through times of change, so that we come together in unity, rooted in Christ's love. Amen
