Reflections & Ruminations... by Fr. Steve Angi

This weekend in our Family of Parishes we celebrate the Feast of St. Gregory the Great. St. Gregory lived in Rome during a period of wars, invasions by hostile tribes, famine, and destruction. He was the son of Gordianus, a wealthy Roman senator. Like most of the upper class of his time, he was well educated. But unlike many, he was generous and concerned about the poor.

When he was in his early 30s, Gregory was made the chief prefect, or governor, of Rome. He had long been attracted to the religious life, however, and so left his position before very long. He converted the family estate in Rome into the Abbey of St. Andrew, became a monk there, and founded six Benedictine monasteries on his estates in Sicily. His life of quiet and prayer did not last long; for around 578 he was ordained one of the seven deacons of Rome and sent as the papal ambassador to Constantinople, where he served until 585. When he arrived back in Rome, he was made the abbot of St. Andrew's.

Five years later the pope died, and Gregory was acclaimed pope by the clergy and the people of Rome. Unwillingly Gregory accepted the role. He was the first pope to call himself the "servant of the servants of God." Gregory was such a good leader that he became known as Gregory the Great. Because of his political skill, learning, talents, and deep devotion to God, Gregory was able to make peace with the invading Lombards, save the city from famine by reorganizing the property and granaries of the Church, and restore order within the Church itself. Even though there were tremendous problems in Rome, Gregory was able to look beyond his land to the needs of people in foreign lands. He sent a group of monks to England to teach the faith to the people who lived there. So great was Gregory's interest in them that he has come to be called the Apostle of England, even though he himself was unable to travel there to preach. His achievements were many and had a widespread effect, but Gregory became a saint because of his love for God, which was reflected in all that he did. St. Gregory the Great, pray for us!

FAITH FORMATION & EVANGELIZATION

Children's Liturgy of the Word at IHM

We are delighted to welcome your little ones to this special time of worship designed just for them. Our Children's Liturgy of the Word (CLOW) provides a nurturing and age-appropriate environment where children ages 3-5 can experience the joy of the Gospel and grow in their faith. CLOW is a special part of the Mass where children gather separately from the main congregation to hear and discuss the Word of God in a way that is tailored to their age group. It's a chance for them to learn about Jesus in a fun and interactive way! Children will be dismissed from Mass just before the first reading and will return during the offertory. They will learn about the Gospel as well as the liturgical season. CLOW will be offered during the first Sunday of every month. Dates include: 10/6, 11/3, 12/8, 1/5, 2/2, 3/2, and 4/6. For more information, please contact Tina Ramundo at tinar@ihom.org.

We wanted to give those who were unable to attend a chance to provide feedback as well. If you would like to provide some input, please fill out the survey by scanning the QR code (it takes approximately 10 minutes).

Season of Creation

"Despite all attempts to deny, conceal, gloss over or relativize the issue, the signs of climate change are here and increasingly evident. No one can ignore the fact that in recent years we have witnessed extreme weather phenomena, frequent periods of unusual heat, drought and other (disasters) ... I ask everyone to accompany this pilgrimage of reconciliation with the world that is our home and to help make it more beautiful." (Pope Francis)

Making our Earthly home more beautiful will require lowering carbon pollution to be net zero by 2050. This is fully possible while maintaining or improving living standards everywhere. And it is possible without crashing the economy or significant lifestyle restrictions. There is a path to be net carbon neutral in this generation. (From - Not the End of the World - How We Can Be the First Generation to Build a Sustainable Planet by Hannah Ritchie.)

Keep in Mind

One might proclaim, "My faith is private." But this is not true! Our faith is not private. Recall when Jesus said that we don't light a lamp and then cover it up! The lamp of faith is for all to see...and therefore to be seen in us!

Our Catholic faith is a relationship, and no relationship is a private thing. Our faith relationship with God and with each other means that the "other" must naturally be involved.

The great social manipulation today (the party line) is that faith is a private thing and therefore is to be kept in private. One danger in this is the loss of our constitutional freedom of "religion" as religion is an open and communal expression. God has set us on fire so that the world would see!
Deacon Bob

St. Gregory the Great Family of Parishes Prayer

St. Gregory the Great, patron saint of teachers, present our prayer of gratitude to our Heavenly Father. Share our prayer of wisdom and guidance as we continue on the path to unify our family of parishes. Just as you led the faithful knowing "the proof of love is in the works", open our hearts to be dedicated disciples of Jesus through prayer, teaching, sacraments and service. May our works, inspired by Jesus, guide us to unity within our family and love within our community. Teach us humility and compassion, the cornerstones of generosity, and the unwavering faith you demonstrated through times of change, so that we come together in unity, rooted in Christ's love. Amen.
