Welcome

Reflections & Ruminations... by Fr. Steve Angi

In this age of dislocation, when people around the globe are on the move, fleeing violence, crushing poverty and despair, the Feast of the Epiphany today presents us with another tale of a journey- a journey of faith and hope. Scripture tells us little about the travelers, these Magi from the East, who set out bearing gifts for a newborn king, based on their knowledge of prophecy and omens in the sky. The magi had a higher aim; they did not come to learn from a human king but to pay homage to a divine one. The Feast of Epiphany, this journey of the Magi, reminds us that the Spirit of God, who was breathed out over the waters at creation, continues to move among us to love, call and enlighten all who are open to God's presence. This Spirit moved the Magi to give away their material possessions as they searched for something more real, more profound. God's Spirit is not confined to any individual, any people, any church building, no matter how magnificent. Notice, it is not King Herod, the scribes or the temple priests of Israel who recognize or worship the newborn king, but outsiders, foreigners. If we shut our doors and our hearts to people of difference, like Herod or the infamous innkeepers of Bethlehem did, we might miss a chance to welcome bearers of God's Spirit and God's Word. We encounter a better role model in Mary of Nazareth, who welcomed these unfamiliar guests and their unusual gifts rather than turn them away. It is easy to imagine this humble woman "reflecting on" and "treasuring" this visit, as she did the night she received her first unexpected visitors, a band of impoverished shepherds from the hillsides near Bethlehem singing God's praises and speaking of angels. This Feast encourages us to reflect on how we can be welcoming to all peoples in our family of parishes, our circle of friends and in our hearts.

HEALTH MINISTRY: NEWS AND EVENTS

New Ministry! Companions in Christ

Pray | Listen | Connect

Companions in Christ is a ministry that offers companionship, support, and connection to parishioners and beyond. Volunteers for this ministry visit people in their homes, nursing facilities, or in the hospitals—and are a friendly face from our family of parishes.

The purpose of this ministry is to increase people's feelings of connection to God and the Church, to help people to know they are cared for and loved, to address the epidemic of loneliness, and to connect people with resources, other ministries, or sacraments.

This is a great ministry if you enjoy creating personal connections with others, are a good listener, or enjoy praying with others. Very flexible time commitment—volunteer as much or as little time as you have available.

FAITH FORMATION & EVANGELIZATION

Fathers Team | Every Friday

Come as you are. Leave changed.

In this season of Fathers Team our theme is "We Can Be Heroes." Jesus called twelve sinners to follow Him, and they changed the world. In the heart of every Christian man lies the potential to be a hero and it starts with doing the small things heroically like supporting our wives, guiding our children and mentoring our friends. Ordinary men doing extraordinary things can be found everywhere. Start your journey to becoming an everyday hero for the ones you love.

Children's Liturgy of the Word

Children's Liturgy of the Word (CLOW) provides a nurturing and age-appropriate environment where children can experience the joy of the Gospel and grow in their faith. CLOW is a special part of the Mass where children gather separately from the main congregation to hear and discuss the Word of God in a way that is tailored to their age group. Children will be dismissed from Mass just before the first reading and will return during the offertory.

- IHM holds CLOW on the first Sunday of the month during the 9:30am Mass. This program is for children ages 3-2nd grade. For more information, please contact Tina Ramundo at tinar@sggparish.org.
- GA holds CLOW on the third Sunday of every month during the 10am Mass. This program is for children ages 3-7. If you are interested in learning more or volunteering to help, please email alisonr@sggparish.org.

If you are interested in being added to our email distribution list, please email mensfaith@gaparish.org.

January 13 Topic: Spiritual Warfare

Ministry of Prayer

Prayer is foundational to the Church and all our ministries. Contemplative orders like the Carmelites, Trappists, and Cistercians arose from the custom of the desert fathers and mothers who devoted themselves to prayer for the love of God and the salvation of souls. Our new Ministry of Prayer is for anyone willing to devote themselves to daily prayer for our family of parishes in this same tradition. There are no meetings, and you don't even need to leave home. We will send you monthly reflections and intercessions. For more information, contact Rosanne Thomas, Director of Adult Evangelization for St. Gregory the Great, at 513-388-4189 or rosannet@sggparish.org.

Open Your Hearts and Minds with our RCIA Catechumens and Candidates

The OCIA (formerly RCIA) team would like to invite anyone in the St. Gregory the Great community to join our Catechumens and Candidates for a two-part presentation on the Theology of the Body (TOB) and the Sacrament of Marriage. This presentation is designed to open hearts and minds to the beauty of Pope St. John Paul II's teachings regarding TOB and its importance in the modern world. Over two nights, Deacon Russ and Missy Feldkamp will open up this beautiful teaching in a clear and engaging presentation that not only informs but gives witness to its impact in their lives. Given the current climate, it is essential that we understand the wisdom of God's creation in order to be the individual desires us to be and to love the way God intends us to love.

If you'd like to know more about what God wants for you, please join us on January 16th and 23rd in the St. Matthew Room in the IHM Welcome Center at 7:00 pm.

SOCIAL ACTION | VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES

Thank you from Guardian Angels

On behalf of the Guardian Angels St. Vincent de Paul, we want to thank everyone for their abundant generosity throughout the Thanksgiving and Christmas holidays! We were able to deliver food boxes, Kroger cards and warm greetings to 100 families for each holiday. This year, parishioners adopted 30 families in the Mt. Washington area, giving them warm coats, winter clothes and toys for the children. Every family was grateful for the delivery of food and gifts. Our amazing volunteers even received a few hugs! We hope you have a blessed and healthy New Year.

Find Room in Your Heart to sponsor a deserving student today!

Project Education has been providing financial and community support to the Cultural Center of Batahola Norte for 20 years. Last year Project Education provided $49,731.86 in financial support to CCBN which funded 172 student and teacher sponsorships and provided school supplies to all scholarship recipients. In 2025 the Center hopes to buy new computers and improve its library. To assist in this effort, we'd like to commemorate the 20th anniversary of Project Education by increasing both the number of scholarships funded and the amount of funds raised through open donations.

You can find the form to sponsor a student on our website at ihom.org under News & Announcements and also under the outreach tab - Parish Twinning

St. Gregory the Great Day of Service

VOLUNTEER WITH US!

One of the goals of our St. Gregory the Great Family of Parishes is to host events that will attract at least 300 parishioners from our three churches. Planning has begun to host one of these events on March 15th, 2025, under the banner of a St. Gregory the Great Day of Service.

This day will consist of five service projects with our parishioners supplying the labor to provide meals, food, toiletry kits, and diapers to area food pantries and other non-profits.

Here is a brief description of the activities:

1. We will execute an assembly line production of macaroni and cheese meals. We will take bulk items and pack them into 25,000 individual meals.
2. We will collect diapers of all sizes and break them down into smaller packages that will be distributed by the Care Closet in Newport, Kentucky.
3. We will pack needed hygiene item kits for men and women to be distributed at various homeless shelters.
4. We will pack healthy food "power packs" that will be distributed to various schools and clubs by Inter Parish Ministry (IPM).
5. We will pack bags filled with feminine products, lotion, and hand sanitizer for the "Never the Less" organization that provides programs for at risk 6th - 11th grade girls in the Tri-State area.

More details will be announced in the coming weeks. If you are interested in taking a role to help plan this event please contact Jim Moyer by phone 513-300-3883, or by email - jmoyer1@fuse.net.

This is an event where families of all ages can participate together. It is a fantastic opportunity to demonstrate to our children the need for us to provide basic food and personal care products to those who are less fortunate.

Keep in Mind

The question arises time and again: Do I have to confess my sins to a priest to be forgiven? If one is not Catholic, then the answer is "no" because outside of the sacraments all one has is whatever is between him/her and God. This, then, begs the question of how will one ever be sure one is forgiven until one meets Jesus Christ at death or the second coming? However, if one is Catholic, the answer is yes because this is what Jesus commanded on Easter night.

St. Gregory the Great Family of Parishes Prayer

St. Gregory the Great, patron saint of teachers, present our prayer of gratitude to our Heavenly Father. Share our prayer of wisdom and guidance as we continue on the path to unify our family of parishes. Just as you led the faithful knowing "the proof of love is in the works", open our hearts to be dedicated disciples of Jesus through prayer, teaching, sacraments and service. May our works, inspired by Jesus, guide us to unity within our family and love within our community. Teach us humility and compassion, the cornerstones of generosity, and the unwavering faith you demonstrated through times of change, so that we come together in unity, rooted in Christ's love. Amen.
