Welcome

Reflections & Ruminations... by Fr. Steve Angi

Our gospel for this Sunday, the Second Sunday of Lent, is the Transfiguration. Jesus brings His disciples away from the noise and business of the market place and takes them up a mountain. This is not unusual in itself. We know from the gospels that Jesus Himself often went to the mountain top to pray on His own. While they are on the mountain, something very strange and unusual happens. Jesus is changed in a very dramatic way; He is transformed beyond all recognition. Imagine the surprise and shock of those who were with Jesus. Yet even with this amazing experience, Peter is still able to proclaim, "Lord it is wonderful for us to be here."

As we continue our Lenten journey and Jesus continues His own journey towards Jerusalem, He knows what He is facing. He will be betrayed, denied, condemned and crucified. Perhaps He feels and senses the disciples fear and anxiety and so wants to reassure them. So He gives them a glimpse of the things to come. This brief glimpse of Jesus in all His glory is also meant for us today. Perhaps like the disciples, we too experience fear, doubt and even a lack of faith. Perhaps we, too, need to be encouraged and strengthened by Jesus, especially as we continue our journey through Lent. We, too, need to know that our prayer, fasting and almsgiving is not an end in itself or that it is all done in vain. We are heading towards the resurrection and the new life of Easter, but we have a distance to go yet. The experience of Jesus transformed offers each of us a taste of what lies ahead of us. If we share in the suffering and passion of Jesus, we will also share in his resurrection.

This is the hope in which we are asked to have faith as we make our way through Lent. When we are tempted to give up and give in, let us look to Jesus changed and transformed. May we see in Him the future that is promised to us, not only at Easter but in the fullness of God's Kingdom. As we continue to make our way through Lent, let us do what the voice of God says to each of us; "This is my Son, Listen to Him."

Take (Or Give) That Compliment!

The Power of Positive Words

Is it possible that we hesitate to fully accept or give a compliment? Here's some food for thought:

- Compliments are gifts we exchange. They can be about appearance, accomplishments, personality traits or abilities. The more specific the compliment, the more seen and valued the receiver feels.
- Compliments can help both the giver and receiver feel more comfortable and connected.
- Giving a genuine compliment causes our brains to release dopamine, the neurotransmitter associated with pleasure and reward.
- A compliment is always meant to make us feel good. Breathe it in and let it warm you. For more information about giving and receiving compliments, scan the QR code.

Thank you from Project Education Recipient!

Today we gather to celebrate with gratitude and joy the 25 years of twinning between the Immaculate Heart of Mary and the Batahola Norte Cultural Center. One quarter of a century where we have walked together, driven by hope and commitment to human development.

During this time, we have seen projects flourish that have changed lives, providing opportunities to those who need it most. Among them, our Project Education external scholarships which 35 children, 30 adolescents and 18 university students proudly receive. Thanks to this joint effort, doors have been opened that previously seemed unattainable, allowing knowledge and training to be a driving force of change for our lives and our communities. We cannot fail to mention the courses, internal scholarships and workshops that have enriched so many people, children, women, young people and adults, generally women, strengthening not only our skills, but also the sense of unity and solidarity that defines us.

For all this, we want to express our deepest gratitude to those who have made this path possible with their dedication, support & commitment, to our educators, & to each person who has contributed their grain of sand so that this story of growth and hope continues to be written for all of us. May this not only be a celebration of today, but the impetus to continue building a better future together. Thank you with all our hearts.

Tuesday, March 18th at 7:00 pm in Resurrection Room

Deacon Russ Feldkamp explores how God communicates to us and how we can hear the voice of God

Did you know that God longs to communicate with us and through us? Understanding the relationship our loving God wants to have with His sons and daughters allows us to hear His call. He strongly desires to reveal His heart to us and when we learn to hear Him, we can respond generously and boldly. We will practice hearing Jesus through the Holy Spirit and speaking words of life to our neighbor. Our generous response allows us to make disciples and bring about the kingdom of God.

Thursday, March 27th at 7:00 pm at St. John Fisher Church

Taizé Prayer Service

Prayer in the spirit of the Taizé Community is a meditative form of common prayer. Gathered in the presence of Christ we sing uncomplicated, repetitive songs, uncluttered by too many words, allowing the mystery of God to become tangible through the beauty of simplicity. A few words sung over and over again reinforce the meditative quality of prayer. They express a basic reality of faith that can quickly be grasped by the intellect and gradually penetrates the whole being.

Special Speaker Series

Introducing our new Magazine: Called For More

Called for More is the new St. Gregory the Great Family of Parishes Magazine!

The purpose is to share your stories of how you live out the St. Gregory the Great mission of being life-long disciples responding to the mission that you are called for more. This will be published two times in 2025. Once in June and a second time in December.

Articles should focus on the story and your heart behind why you do what you do. Volunteer at the Fish Fry? Great! Tell us why. Participate in Respect Life activities? Of course you do! Tell us why.

Please write your article and send it to Maggie Leon-Guerrero at MaggieL@sggparish.org by April 21. Maggie will work with you on any edits or ask additional questions to help get to the heart of the story if needed. Thank you for sharing your stories!

Keep in Mind

The true purpose of clothing is to protect the body. The purpose of modesty is to protect the intimate center of the person. It means refusing to unveil what should remain hidden, in body and in spirit, externally and internally. So our clothing is integral in the expression of our modesty.

Modesty protects the mystery of persons and their love. It is decency and discretion protecting one from the risk of unhealthy curiosity or desire. Modesty encourages patience and moderation in loving relationships all toward the true health and well-being God intends for us.

When clothing becomes immodest for the sake of style and conformity, the dignity of the human person is tremendously compromised (see CCC 2521-23). Deacon Bob

St. Gregory the Great Family of Parishes Prayer

St. Gregory the Great, patron saint of teachers, present our prayer of gratitude to our Heavenly Father. Share our prayer of wisdom and guidance as we continue on the path to unify our family of parishes. Just as you led the faithful knowing "the proof of love is in the works", open our hearts to be dedicated disciples of Jesus through prayer, teaching, sacraments and service. May our works, inspired by Jesus, guide us to unity within our family and love within our community. Teach us humility and compassion, the cornerstones of generosity, and the unwavering faith you demonstrated through times of change, so that we come together in unity, rooted in Christ's love. Amen.
