Welcome

Reflections & Ruminations... by Fr. Steve Angi

The Eucharist stands as the central sacrament in the Catholic faith, embodying the profound mystery of Christ's presence among believers. This weekend, we celebrate First Holy Communion for students at Guardian Angels at 10:30 Saturday, and at Immaculate Heart of Mary at 3:00, 5:00 and 11:30 and next Saturday at 3:00. St. John Fisher celebrated their First Holy Communion last weekend. This event is a cause of great joy for all of us in the St. Gregory the Great Family of Parishes. We rejoice with these young ones and their families.

For children, receiving their First Holy Communion marks a pivotal moment in their spiritual journey. It is a sacramental milestone that signifies their initiation into the fullness of Christian life and community.

Through their participation in the Eucharist, children encounter Jesus in a tangible way, experiencing His love and presence in the simple elements of bread and wine. This encounter deepens their relationship with Christ and strengthens their connection to the wider Christian community. It instills in them a sense of belonging and identity as members of the body of Christ, called to live out their faith in service to others. In receiving the body and blood of Christ, they are nourished and empowered to live as faithful witnesses to the gospel, spreading the message of love and redemption to all whom they encounter. The First Holy Communion is not just a one-time event but marks the beginning of a lifelong journey of faith and discipleship.

This momentous occasion has been preceded by a period of preparation, during which the children have learned about the significance of the Eucharist and its role in the life of the Church. We thank our St. Gregory the Great Catechists and the staff of Guardian Angels and Immaculate Heart of Mary schools who have journeyed with these young ones as they prepare to encounter Christ in the Eucharist. We equally thank the parents of these children for fulfilling the promises they made at the baptism of their children to bring up in the practice of the faith. We thank them for their support and accompaniment. Congratulations to all our First Communicants!

Fr. Steve Angi

Keep in Mind

What do we see when we see the cross of Christ? There is a novel in which a lead character, a Roman from the time of Christ, finds himself in our time today. He sees a person wearing a crucifix and is appalled that someone would wear such a symbol of torture, pain and death.

On one hand we, too, must never overlook the remembrance of how terrible death by crucifixion really was.

On the other hand, it remains the symbol of our faith in that Jesus has conquered even death, a most awful death.

Flannery O'Connor says it very well, "The truth does not change according to our ability to stomach it. The joy of Easter would not exist without the horrific sacrifice that came before it."

St. Gregory the Great Family of Parishes Prayer

St. Gregory the Great, patron saint of teachers, present our prayer of gratitude to our Heavenly Father. Share our prayer of wisdom and guidance as we continue on the path to unify our family of parishes. Just as you led the faithful knowing "the proof of love is in the works", open our hearts to be dedicated disciples of Jesus through prayer, teaching, sacraments and service. May our works, inspired by Jesus, guide us to unity within our family and love within our community. Teach us humility and compassion, the cornerstones of generosity, and the unwavering faith you demonstrated through times of change, so that we come together in unity, rooted in Christ's love. Amen.
