Welcome

Reflections & Ruminations... by Fr. Steve Angi

This weekend, we celebrate Mother's Day. Mother's Day is marked by celebration and thankfulness, honoring the special women in our lives that we call "mom." The day brings forth wonderful memories of the mom that raised us, loved us, taught us, and nurtured us. However, for others, it's a painful time as it reminds them about the mother they wish they'd had. In either case, mothers have an impact on their children's lives that will last forever. Motherhood is a calling and not a hobby. Mothers make the home a safe place, a place where we are taught to work hard, where we are corrected when we stray, and where we are celebrated as unique children created by God. Mothers fully embrace their calling as mothers. Mothers believe there is nothing that they would rather do than invest in our lives. Mothering isn't the kind of job that produces a tangible monetary salary.

There are hard days being a mom. There are days when kids get sick, they don't take naps, they have meltdowns in public, or things just generally get chaotic. Mothers embrace it whole-heartedly. Mothers believe "Anything worth doing is hard." Motherhood is humbling and it does take sacrifice. Those who are willing to walk that road will reap great rewards. Thanks to all our mothers for their influence and impact in our lives!

Fr. Steve Angi

Thank you to GA from KofC

On behalf of myself, Joe Zistler, and all the Brother Knights of Archbishop Moeller Council, I want to thank you for allowing us to collect for our ongoing support of the Measure Up Campaign.

As you know, this collection is vital to the success of this charitable campaign and all the money collected is distributed to local organizations who support children and adults with physical and mental disabilities.

We look forward to continuing to work with GA on this program and future collections as well as continuing to support any financial or physical needs related to GA church and school.

What does charity mean to you? Does this mean going to volunteer your time for a local organization? Does this mean volunteering your time and talents to your local Catholic Church? Does it mean supporting the local veterans who gave their lives to our country? Or does it mean all of that and more? The Knights of Columbus can help you with continuing to fulfill that journey. Want to be a part of that? Go to kofco.org and click on Join Us. For more information contact Membership Director, Steve Yards at 513-312-3211 or syards77@gmail.com.

40 Days for Life Thank You

Dear 40 Days for Life Spring/Lenten 2025 participants, My deepest gratitude to all involved who prepared for or participated in the latest Cincinnati campaign. I'm grateful to all who made the sacrifice to come to the sidewalk to pray in reparation for all the abortions that have been committed and to ask the Holy Spirit to soften the hearts of all involved in this evil in any way. For all the mothers and fathers who felt that this was their only option, we pray that they will find healing from the merciful love of God. We pray also for those who will face this crisis in the future, that God will put loving people in their paths to direct them to the help they need to welcome their children with love.

I never cease to be humbled by all of you, especially those who had to brave the heavy rain or mostly blustery cold days throughout the campaign. That gave us another opportunity for penance. If you were there on the rare bright and warm(ish) day, lucky you! God bless you all.

A Prayer for Women in Waiting

Mary, Mother of God, thank you for presenting our desire to become a mother to our Heavenly Father.
With your grace and eloquence, make it be known.
While becoming a mother was never promised to us, thank you for uplifting the desire in our hearts.
As we continue our individual journeys, remind us that when our decision is sparked by the Holy Spirit, we can't get it wrong.
When we're heartbroken, remind us that the break is necessary for the light of your love to enter.
Most of all, teach us the joy of God, a joy we couldn't experience by ourselves, so that we can continue to walk by faith, and not by sight.
Amen

Keep in Mind

In our lifelong search to be what we are meant to be in this world and what we are to do here, it is important to remember a key truth. God's love for us, His unconditional desire for us and our well-being, is completely gratuitous! It is a gift to us that God is in no way bound to give nor do we earn it. It is simply...yet profoundly...given.

This, then, helps us to answer the questions of our purpose in life on earth because when coupled with the indisputable reality that we are made in the image and likeness of this loving God, our role then is to resemble Him in our gratuitous love for others.

So it is never a matter of loving this one and not that one. As God's image we love all others, and though we may find it difficult at times, this is our work and our calling here.

Deacon Bob

St. Gregory the Great Family of Parishes Prayer

St. Gregory the Great, patron saint of teachers, present our prayer of gratitude to our Heavenly Father. Share our prayer of wisdom and guidance as we continue on the path to unify our family of parishes. Just as you led the faithful knowing "the proof of love is in the works", open our hearts to be dedicated disciples of Jesus through prayer, teaching, sacraments and service. May our works, inspired by Jesus, guide us to unity within our family and love within our community. Teach us humility and compassion, the cornerstones of generosity, and the unwavering faith you demonstrated through times of change, so that we come together in unity, rooted in Christ's love. Amen.
